

TravelSalesRep.com is pleased to invite leading travel suppliers to tap into its hard-earned following of a majority of the travel agents located in the United States and Canada. This opportunity allows you to gain exposure to tens-of-thousands travel retailers that may otherwise never know about your travel offering or why they should sell it.

With TravelSalesRep.com's cyber-sales calls, you'll be getting a lot more than just a simple email broadcast. As a travel supplier, you will have gained a team that has honed their ability to communicate, motivate and promote on your behalf – all at a price that's less than having someone write, distribute and track a press release!

Monthly Pricing For A Long-Term Marketing Tool

The more eSales topics you have TravelSalesRep.com present, the better and faster travel agents are going to get to know you and your offering. On the other hand, if you are, for example, a very small boutique hotel, it may not make sense to run with four eSales Calls per month. TravelSalesRep.com works best the longer you use it. Monthly payments are built to accommodate any budget or travel offering.
